

WOMEN'S ELITE

JOB DESCRIPTION

Through hard work and talent you have become a member of Women's Elite. It is an honor and a privilege to be selected for this choir. This privilege comes with certain responsibilities to which you each must commit in order for this choir to achieve success:

1. You will commit to the entire year of choir.
2. You will have a good to excellent voice which consistently functions well and you will have the ability to dance well. You will take voice and/or dance lessons if possible.
3. You will work to improve your sight-reading skills by in-class work, the Jensen Books, Regional & All-State samples and any other outside means necessary to keep you progressing.
4. You are encouraged to audition for Regional Festival Chorus and if eligible, for the All-State Festival Chorus. If you decide to participate in these events you will pay all required fees.
5. You will maintain exceptional behavior in class facilitating class progress.
6. You will attend all choir performances & field-trips.
7. You will pay all choir fees in a timely manner. You will participate in at least one choir fundraiser this year to help the department raise money.
8. You will understand the different demands of musical styles and of solo and choral singing and use your voice appropriately for each.
9. You will manage your time schedule of school, church, family, social, and work commitments so that you have the energy and time to commit to this choir. This includes taking responsibility for letting the directors know well in advance of any schedule conflicts.
10. You will keep your appearance clean cut, maintaining the proper "look" for show choir performances:
 - Hair neatly pulled away from the face, curly and big. Matching makeup on all women, no visible piercings, other than ears. Hair must be a natural color, no perfumes, use required accessories
11. You understand that if the above responsibilities are not met, you may be forfeiting your right to participate in this ensemble.
