

WOMEN'S ELITE - JOB DESCRIPTION

Through hard work and talent you have become a member of Women's Elite. It is an honor and a privilege to be selected for this choir. This privilege comes with certain responsibilities to which you each must commit in order for this choir to achieve success:

1. I will have a good to excellent voice which consistently functions well. I will take voice and/or piano lessons if possible. .
2. I will work to improve my sight-reading skills by in-class work, the Jensen Books, Regional &All-State samples and any other outside means necessary to keep progressing.
3. I am encouraged to audition for any festivals and shows that interest me. If I decide to participate in these events, I will pay all required fees.
4. I will quickly and reliably memorize my music for the concerts
5. I will maintain exceptional behavior in class facilitating class progress.
6. I will attend all choir performances and field-trips, or provide at least two weeks notice in writing explaining my reason for absence. I will complete a make-up assignment if I miss any rehearsal or performance outside of class, or I will take the grade of a zero.
7. I will pay all choir fees in a timely manner. I will participate in at least one choir fundraiser this year to help the department raise money.
8. I will manage my time schedule of school, church, family, social, and work commitments so that I have the energy and time to commit to this choir. This includes taking responsibility for letting the directors know well in advance of any schedule conflicts.
9. You will maintain a positive attitude in rehearsals even in the face of frustration, and encourage your classmates to do the same.
10. I will keep my appearance clean cut, maintaining the proper uniform "look" for choir performances:
For women: hair neatly pulled away from the face, curly and big. Matching makeup on all women, no visible piercings other than ears.
For everyone: Hair must be a natural color, no perfumes or cologne, required accessories
- 11, I will have my folder, music, and pencil in class every day.
12. I understand that if the above responsibilities are not met, I may be forfeiting my right to participate in this ensemble.
